Introduction

We're Going to Fight Like Hell—George Soros

Most people don't spend much time thinking about corruption, most people would probably not like to think about it at all. Until recently the public conception of corruption has been skewed toward a very soft or petty view based on ideas like bribery, embezzlement and abuse of personal power. After recent political events that view is shifting to a grander view of a deeper-seated systemic presence, the puppeteer perspective of societal control which has kept itself hidden from public awareness. The functioning of this kind of structure is much more complex and broad-based that people would like to believe until the evidence of the "hidden hand" has become so glaring as to be undeniable. The beast of a massive authoritarian presence is here in the face. Many are coming to believe that recent events which seemed all too coincidental are part of a well-organized plan to benefit the moneyed few in ways that were not very evident in the beginning until they had time to play out.

Just how did we get here? How did the players become entrapped in this web of deceit? What are the rules of this bizarre production?

Ignorance was bliss and knowledge makes life messier, very, very messy and you won't find the rules of this game in a Civics 101 textbook. It goes without saying that affluence enables/promotes influence, but the details are hidden by the doers in the interests of self-preservation, the exact whys and hows.

We live in a public relations hologram financed by resources of the ultra-rich who use tools like manipulation of the press, smears, social pressures, outright blackmail, and an organized deniability style of violence reminiscent of a low key cartel.

The people who do think about corruption a lot are the people who have condemned themselves to live a life of corruption. They don't want to get caught. They are desperate, they lie, cheat, steal, threaten, blackmail, maim, murder, just like a Mafioso thriller. They have a lot to lose. The Clinton body count hit list of suicided and murdered personalities that have died shortly after criticizing the Clintons in print is real. More than 100 people are on the list! Just a coincidence that they all died?

How many corrupt luminaries are there? In early 2021, more than you could possibly imagine, both parties, politics, medicine, academia, show business, banking, investments, government, law enforcement...rotten to the core.

“Expand your thinking.” The more of them there are, the worse it gets. The numbers are huge. The puppets are buried deep, deep, deep. It is self-sustaining, a weed patch that grows out of control. Certainly more than half the Congress is at some risk for prosecution.

As more and more money concentrates into fewer and fewer hands, the bigger network the trillionaires need to cover their tracks, judges, lawyers, fixers, prostitutes, muscle men, assassins, the new Inquisition.

If people don’t start thinking about it, hard, they will live to regret it as they see their words and thoughts detour into the psychology of a third world existence. Votes don’t count because the puppets count the votes. Democracy disappears. Lives don’t count because “war is good for business, invest a son.” Ignorance is not bliss, it is suicidal.

This is not idle rhetoric. Plenty of freely available online sources are given for verification by reputable journalists and authors.

Consider a recent high profile news item by attorney Michael van der Veen about his family’s harassment after presenting arguments before Congress and winning. “My home was attacked last night—windows broken, spray paint, really bad words spray painted everywhere. And the thing is, you guys don’t know me, but you know I’m not a controversial guy. I’m not politically minded so to speak,” he said. “I’m a trial lawyer and I represent people’s interests in court. That’s what I do. I love doing it. And I’m disappointed that that is the result of just me doing my job.” Does this begin to sound like Mexico City politics shaped by drug overlords only happening here in America?

Technologies and concentrations of wealth unimagined by our forefathers endanger the freedoms they tried so hard to protect with checks and balances. An overhaul and resetting of goals and methods will be needed to rebalance the scale and it needs to happen very soon based on a clear understanding by the electorate about just what is going on in the back rooms. One very big problem is that there is no clear and accurate definitive source for just what is going on.

How big is the problem? Who are the players? What do they want? Is a checkmate possible?

We are opposed around the world by a monolithic and ruthless conspiracy that relies primarily on covert means for expanding its sphere of influence — on infiltration instead of invasion, on subversion instead of elections, on intimidation instead of free choice, on guerrillas by night instead of armies by day....It is a system which has conscripted vast human and material resources into the building of a tightly knit, highly efficient machine that combines military, diplomatic, intelligence, economic, scientific and political operations.—JFK, 1961

Where will it stop? Who will stop it? Does it have to get worse before the disgust and necessity builds into action?

What does it mean to live in a Democracy? What do ‘we the people’ expect and deserve? What does it take to dismantle our democracy and who would benefit by creating such a plan? Where do we cross the line and call destruction of the republic treason? Listening to someone like Yale Professor Dahl one gets a very simplified picture about the way democracy is supposed to work. What happens when someone or some state-funded entity with a trillion dollars decides to intervene and change that vision? The hallmark of a democracy is free and fair elections, without that there is no republic. Ironically, karmically, we have done that to other countries and now they appear to have done that to us, blowback happens.

Party politics aside, unless the vast corrupt network of vote stealing/manipulating infrastructure is eliminated, governance will continue to be a plaything of the puppeteers. Military intelligence is here to serve the word and spirit of the constitution, not the schemes of fixers and fraudsters to which the public has been witness. Each of the many missteps that could have saved the republic was cleverly manipulated by the media and the corrupted minions. Fortunately the NSA has the real vote counts based on forensic analysis of the many seized Dominion servers. Rigorous legal evidence of accurate election total counts is available when the time comes, but we await the day when it is used effectively in a military court. They know which candidate earned respect as the commander-in-chief and which is a poseur and they act accordingly. Until the drama of this charade is pushed deeply and irreversibly into the public psyche things will not change. It is inevitable that this day will come. Only God knows the final script of when and how we will wake up. As one recent demonstrator’s sign poignantly pointed out—Democracy was born and died at Gettysburg, the gardeners there and elsewhere did not understand and fulfil the need for proper cultivation and the crop was lost. We are slow learners to the corruption reality and unless we see this fiasco play out first hand and live through the consequences of our neglect, we will be the losers. We must recognize the need and support a workable solution or elections will be completely untrustable.

Unfortunately, the public has a very poor conception of money, power and evil and how they work to control society. Intelligence agencies understand it and meddle in it a lot. The rich and powerful understand it and constantly juggle with each other to seek and secure advantage. Be assured you will be the last to know the inner workings of these machinations unless you are on the inside looking out. Unmitigated greed revalues what is precious in life. Does everyone really have a price?

So what are these inner workings like? What core concepts will let you reset your psyche?

Be forewarned that the discussion below is not a polite outline of heretofore undisclosed details. It tells not only what makes dirty politics ugly, but just how disgusting the whole mess is. These details are not for dinnertime discussion, but a sense of these truths are essential for the comprehension of forthcoming events and prosecutions. It will be hard to believe for many.

Sexual Misconduct

Blackmailed pedophile politicians, many of whom are well-known elected representatives occupying critically important positions in virtually every national government, particularly in the West, have remained insularly protected and immune from investigation and prosecution. Why? Because those running these global child sex networks internationally control both them as well as law enforcement and the high courts.—Joachim Hagopian

Most people don't spend much time thinking about pedophilia either, it's a downright ugly topic. People don't like to discuss this in polite company and someone accused of it is likely to need a big boost in their public relations. But do tell, without it at this time the country would fall apart, literally.

The cultish figures in this conspiratorial hierarchy that are elevated to prominence are tightly controlled by progressive levels of dependency involving participation in sexual deviancy. The highest members are compromised by the most heinous acts in settings that are recorded for the world to see if they step out of line. It sounds like the plot of a poorly done movie script, nonetheless it is a proven formula in wide use and supported by documented research.

Most people would be surprised to find out that whether someone has been compromised is, in most cases, the determining factor on whether a high-level public figure will be allowed into the club of mass popularity. Hard to believe? It's all about dirt and who has the most of it, CIA, NSA, FBI, Epstein, they are happy to do trades to get the job done. Without it there is no leverage to push the puppet over the edge. Entrapment teams take time and there's no guaranteed result. Without the ugly sex dirt blackmail controllers end up stuck with bribery, threats and violence. That may be enough for down home smears, but the upper echelon needs to be secured with iron-clad guarantees, the uglier the more effective.

“Pedophilia is generally understood to be about the rape of children by adults – children as young as two to four years old. Many children abused by pedophiles have been kidnapped and sold into slavery, and many have also been bred—from birth to sale—for pedophilia.”

It may be a disorienting shock to think that is true, but that is the way it works, right here in the USA. This is not about sex shops in Thailand, Indonesia, Bangladesh or some third world country, but right here in the USA! There is an extensive, well-documented literature on this disgrace that is all but ignored.

Sexual misconduct is the puppetmaster's dirty little secret. It is very easy to believe for the orgy lovers in Hollywood, but how does that relate to anything else?

You think Hollywood is about making movies? That's just a byproduct. It's about money, and more importantly, power and control. The people who run Hollywood also run America and most of the world, and they don't care about movies.—Brad Pitt

You won't hear about any or this on CNN so how could it be real? Headlines are the whole point, the power of an overnight smear is what keeps the lid on. The politicos have their own sex rings. There have been several based in the White House.

Without a gatekeeper like someone in the know or an Epstein to let you in, your public future is close to nil. If there is no glittering dirt that can be dangled before the public to keep you on message, you are cooked, your future to be an idol in the limelight of public adoration is dim. The higher up the chain your influence becomes, the more tightly the reigns must be to muzzle unspoken truths.

The Press

"The conscious and intelligent manipulation of the organized habits and opinions of the masses is an important element in democratic society. Those who manipulate this unseen mechanism of society constitute an invisible government which is the true ruling power of our country.

...we are dominated by the relatively small number of persons...who understand the mental processes and social patterns of the masses. It is they who pull the wires which control the public mind."

Propaganda—Edward Bernays

If the freedom of speech is taken away, then dumb and silent we may be led, like sheep to the slaughter.—George Washington

What are the chances that a journalism professor is going to describe his craft in some noble way, serving the public interest, accurate, responsible, diligent, truthful, respectful...? What do we see in the press as it is practiced today in the mainstream media (MSM)? Ever watched an RNC White House press conference recently? Was that kind of behavior what you saw? Rude, contentious, disrespectful, shameful is what I saw. Some call it bloodlust, the nonstop manufacture of scandalous scenarios in an attempt to divide the electorate and unseat or embarrass their targets, never a slow news day at MSM.

In real life MSM journalism, a group of early risers get a 4 am daily playbook narrative email and scramble to assemble the semblance of saleable copy using quotes and slogans from the email. The same email goes to all the members of the MSM "Illusion of Choice" graphic. Be sure to never say anything nice about the people being negatively portrayed and pour on the smear for the daily propaganda blitz. Media matters, but money matters more. Hundreds of these journalists, foreign and domestic, receive money from the CIA and well-healed patrons to spin the news this way or that with disinformation campaigns detrimental to democratic integrity.

Without the press, the other end of the teeter-totter, the control scenario for public figures, would be impossible. If no one tattles on the whistleblower puppet, all that perversion money is for naught, the smear just won't work. So voila, the prostitutes play an essential role in generating fake news and extorting people in power. If sex won't work, there are always foul insults, racial, religious or political intolerance, malignant seditious incitement to fall back on—the basic fabrications of hate speech. In their spare time they can plan an impeachment before the office-holder has even been sworn in.

What is the effect of all this on the millions of readers? Is this the kind of legacy you would want to leave if you were a journalist? Any chance for a mental health class action lawsuit? Would it be exaggerating to say that such prostitutes have been complicit in glorifying the political status of "leaders" that have actively pursued paths of national disgrace, torture, massacres, genocidal acts and the like. This is a war machine in action.

Much of the public, depending on their party affiliation, thinks that if two stories from two mainstream news sites both say something is true, it must be gospel. Each year the Gallup Poll numbers go down and down and down. In 2020, 16% of Democrats and 3% of Republicans trust MSM "a great deal".

What about the distrust?

In 2020 27% of Democrats and 89% of Republicans only trust MSM "not very much" or "not at all." As an aside an early Rasmussen poll shows 75% of Republicans and 30% of Democrats believe the election was rigged against the incumbent. Sounds like people are beginning to wake up?

The Fake News message has come home to roost. Journalists are slowly being relegated to the gutter. Knowing such an outcome is inevitable would you do that to your chosen profession? Would you be proud to be an MSM journalist? Headlines for hire, filth for a fee. Unsourced news our specialty! Hate haven and false flags for all occasions. Souls for sale?

In his essay "The Eternal Return of Fascism," Rob Riemen explores the theoretical weakness of fascism, which depends on a politics of resentment, the incitement of anger and fear, xenophobia, the need for scapegoats, and its hatred of the life of the mind.

He draws on history to explain the global resurgence of fascism, often disguised by its false promises of ushering in freedom and greatness. Does this formula sound familiar?

Satanic Ritual Abuse

Many of the planetary controllers are blood feasting pedophiles, parasitic monsters literally and predatorily feeding off the 8 million children gone missing each year around the world. Global child sex trafficking networks generate huge profits, run by the world's most powerful individuals. A 2014 International Labor Organization report estimates that two thirds of the annual profits from forced labor come from sexual slavery that amounts to $99 billion USD each year. And of that $99 billion, most is produced off the blood, sweat, tears and flesh of helpless underage child sex slaves caught up in global trafficking rings operated by this same diabolical global elite. At the top of this planet's rulers are 13 family bloodlines that include the Rothschilds and Rockefellerers as well as European royalty, controlling thousands of compromised, bribed and blackmailed puppet politicians, bankers, judges, CEO's, military generals, entertainers, top level spies and police chiefs.

–Joachim Hagopian, Pedophilia & Empire: Satan, Sodomy, & The Deep State: Chapter 3: Tracing the Ruling Elite's Pedophile Bloodlust for Children from Antiquity to Today

I ...find that the prevalence and severity of human rights abuse and corruption ... have reached such scope and gravity that they threaten the stability of international political and economic systems. Human rights abuse and corruption undermine the values that form an essential foundation of stable, secure, and functioning societies; have devastating impacts on individuals; weaken democratic institutions; degrade the rule of law; perpetuate violent conflicts; facilitate the activities of dangerous persons; and undermine economic markets.

–Donald J. Trump E.O. 13818

Satanists venerate Satan as a supernatural deity with devotional and ceremonial services. The ceremonial torture and cannibalism abuse activities enacted on small children are gruesome and may end in the murder of the child victim. Optical discs of the participants and their acts exist and act to keep mouths shut if they are about to open.

These activities happen worldwide, in Vatican ceremonies as well as many other walks of life.

Potential officeholders may well ask “Is there a Moloch in my future?” Being a closet psychopath is a big edge. Ask Chelsea Clinton and John Podesta about the Pizzagate ceremonial offerings that have been made fun of in the main street media. They weren’t any fun for those on the receiving end. Who else loved the “pizza” offered there? Which of the customers wanted “walnut sauce”?

This kind of information is very hard to swallow for lots of people. Satanic cannibalistic offerings have been going on for millennia and one good historical treatment comes from academic researcher Janet Ossebaard.

This kind of abuse is one notch higher than the run-of-the-mill misconduct that is good enough for the low level puppet. It works well for personalities at the top of the food chain.

Hollywood is an institutionalized pedophile ring. It is a den of parasites who feast on the blood of children. Every studio in Hollywood is bought and paid for with the blood of innocent children.

They churn through a huge amount of kids every year. Their spiritual beliefs, if you can call them that, direct them to harvest the energy of the kids. They feast on this stuff and they thrive on it.

What do I mean? This isn’t some kind of artistic abstraction. They harvest the blood of children. They eat their flesh. They believe this gives them life force. If the child was suffering in body and psyche before it died, they believe this gives them extra life force. The blood of a sexually abused infant is considered highly ‘enriched’ and is highly prized. The money changing hands, the favors, the kickbacks – you have no idea. Babies are a high-functioning currency all of their own. Babies are their premium brand of high-grade caviar cocaine diamond steak. There is a creative and loving force inside most of us that guides us through life. These people don’t have this. For them it’s the opposite.

Hollywood elites are an enemy of mankind breaking every God-given taboo known to man, including sanctity of children. It’s a dark, multidimensional occult art and practice, used by secret societies in the last few hundred years for social programming and mind control, and raised to a zenith by Hollywood in America in our era.

It’s an open secret in Hollywood. These people have their own religious and spiritual teachings and their own social and moral frameworks. They have their sacred texts – they are sick, believe me—and they couldn’t be more at odds with what America stands for.

The Storm

What storm Mr. President? –Puzzled reporter after Trump’s cliffhanger 2017 off-hand remark about the “calm before the storm”

So here we are in a “democracy” on a prison planet with rich and powerful puppet masters pulling the strings with money and blackmail worldwide. Doesn’t look so good at the moment. What kind of miracle will be needed to get out of such a mess? What to do when you are painted into a corner? Antigravity?

We live in a technological era so different and so rapidly changing that most of the public will have no idea how quickly the rules of engagement are shifting. Those who have read Unacknowledged by Steven Greer or watched the movie Above Majestic will have an idea what I am talking about. The gatekeepers of this new arena are the NSA military intelligence personnel and their new capabilities are orders of magnitude beyond what has been revealed so far. When the puppet people assassinated JFK, that was the last straw. The planning for pulling the teeth of the puppeteers supposedly began decades ago. Now insiders and controlled leaks that are talking keep dropping stronger and stronger hints about what is on the way. Some refer to a military intelligence source called “Q” that uses a form of coded speech. One very bright star is a decoder/interpreter of the “Q drops” named Prayingmedic aka Dave Hayes. Homework:

Calm Before The Storm (2020) by Dave Hayes

The Great Awakening (2020) by Dave Hayes

The MSM has invested a huge amount of ammunition attempting to belittle such talk as this with name calling and data purges, if you do your homework you will understand why. If this planet-saving scenario plays out as intimated, the public will have the word treason heavily on their lips.

Treason?

Liberty cannot be preserved without a general knowledge among the people, who have a right and a desire to know; but besides this, they have a right, an indisputable, unalienable, indefeasible, divine right to know that most dreaded and envied kind of knowledge, I mean of the characters and conduct of their rulers.—John Adams

Treason is the only crime explicitly mentioned in America's Constitution. The word is rhetorically tossed about as a slur, but few Americans have been charged for it in court. Where does dissent end and true betrayal begin? So when do we cross that line and call intentional destruction of the republic treason whether by word or deed? Attempting to overthrow or impede a sitting government is a big deal especially when a foreign government is involved and a dissenter who does this is known in law as a traitor.

The treason statute in United States Code at 18 U.S.C. §2381 states:

“Whoever, owing allegiance to the United States, levies war against them or adheres to their enemies, giving them aid and comfort within the United States or elsewhere, is guilty of treason and shall suffer death, or shall be imprisoned not less than five years and fined under this title but not less than $10,000; and shall be incapable of holding any office under the United States.”

So even if a politician only gets five years, they will still never be elected to office again.

Does asking the military to take nuclear codes from the President constitute treason? He thinks so. Is a state governor who certifies national election results to Congress that are known to be fraudulent guilty of treason? Is a social media company that shuts the President off from constituents engaged in traitorous conduct? Are congresspeople who accept foreign or corporate money to vote in ways that destabilize the republic guilty of treason? Does illegal spying on a candidate constitute treason? Is unarmed revolution via profound social change or technical innovation that endangers democracy a crime? Should justices which refuse to hear arguments of election wrongdoing when evidence abounds be exempt from such charges? Should giving aid and comfort to Chinese cyberwarriors or international Dominion cybercheats be cause for concern? Does inciting civil unrest count? Many innovative and novel interpretations will be under consideration. This is not a game.

Military justice may be involved and if so the standards of what is admissible evidence could be very different. Many such questions will be debated in the coming months and the decisions of military tribunals may have the last word. We are soon to have such issues clarified. Many precedents will be breaking new ground.

The military's duty is to defend our country as a nation to be free from external interference whether in the election process or the legislation process. The dangers that have been identified need to be addressed promptly so that we can move forward with domestic agendas unhindered by inappropriate manipulation.

There are over 200,000 sealed indictments at this point. The courts and holding areas will be packed and the pressure for mass trials and swift justice will be high if the indictments begin to be unsealed. If trafficking is involved the assets of the accused may be frozen limiting their access to counsel. The more helpless an opponent looks, the more emboldened and daring moles behave as they begin to declare their true colors until those fateful days arrive.

Hold the republic and those who you respect in your prayers!

Conclusion

A republic if you can keep it.—Ben Franklin

By now you have surely had “just enough” and then some. The true consequences of corruption will never be in that civics book or a straight-laced encyclopedia puff piece. The rabbit hole runs very deep and slowly gets very ugly as the stakes escalate.

Corruption is such a simple word. How does an “innocent” introduction at a trade show over time turn into a tangled web of deception, a loss of self respect, a traitorous disregard for common decency and those who trust you most? Not only do swamp creatures exceed all the bounds of etiquette, they destroy the traditions of good government and cost millions of lives each year. They promote an agenda ripe for tyranny and selfish motives. Knowledge is powerful, use it wisely and do your own homework. There are plenty of unanswered questions presented here. They are not just food for thought but food for research and self-education. Perhaps many of the answers will be found in transcripts of any forthcoming trials and tribunals. Only time will tell. Get ready to roll up your sleeves. “These people are sick.”

If we were only as united as the swamp is, how soon would there be a change which would alter the whole face of society. It starts with re-education that will undo the myths of the past media madness, a denazification if you will. There are more good people than bad, just how many of them are willing to pitch in? Awake and aware citizens win the day.

"The times are too grave, the challenge too urgent, and the stakes too high to permit the customary passions of political debate. We are not here to curse the darkness, but to light the candle that can guide us through that darkness to a safe and sane future."

Appendix I – E.O. 13818

Executive Order 13818 declaring a national emergency on December 20, 2017

“I, DONALD J. TRUMP, President of the United States of America, find that the prevalence and severity of human rights abuse and corruption that have their source, in whole or in substantial part, outside the United States, such as those committed or directed by persons listed in the Annex to this order, have reached such scope and gravity that they threaten the stability of international political and economic systems. Human rights abuse and corruption undermine the values that form an essential foundation of stable, secure, and functioning societies; have devastating impacts on individuals; weaken democratic institutions; degrade the rule of law; perpetuate violent conflicts; facilitate the activities of dangerous persons; and undermine economic markets. The United States seeks to impose tangible and significant consequences on those who commit serious human rights abuse or engage in corruption, as well as to protect the financial system of the United States from abuse by these same persons.

“I therefore determine that serious human rights abuse and corruption around the world constitute an unusual and extraordinary threat to the national security, foreign policy, and economy of the United States, and I hereby declare a national emergency to deal with that threat.”

Appendix II – The Moneymen

The primary abusers of their wealth are the three well-known trillionaires, the House of Saud, the House of Rothschild, and George Soros.

Of these George Soros is the showiest and most outrageous. He likes to stage media events designed to shift public consciousness while scrambling some aspect of the economy that his investments can take advantage of.

"Why does this great benefactor support a pedophile club such as NAMBLA? "Sex before 8, before it's too late." Then there's ANTIFA, the anti-fascist movement. When we look at their actions we see nothing but violence. They bear great resemblance with fascism which is rather strange for an anti-fascist movement. Even one of the flags is weird. In that sense why would anyone finance such a thing? The same goes for Black Lives Matter. Why sponsor a movement that pretends to be left-wing that shows nothing but riots and violence in practice?"

[START OF TRANSCRIPT]

The migrant Caravan that headed to the southern border of the U.S. in April 2018 was covered by the media big-time. According to the official reports these people came mostly from Honduras where the caravan had started and then people from Guatemala, El Salvador, Nicaragua and Mexico joined the March. The main reasons for them to flee their home country were gang violence and poverty. When I saw the first pictures I was shocked, but then I realized there were just too many images of women and children which is always a sign of media manipulation and a hidden political agenda, always. Critical thinkers like the Q-Anons studied the pictures closely too. Many things did not add up. Like I said in Part 1 these people had to walk for forty five miles a day each and every day for one and a half months, but these people don't look exhausted, all dirty or sweaty. I mean look at them. The clothes are clean, clean! Babies clean pants, they wear labels, they are well-fed. These people aren't refugees, they're not poor.

I traveled through Mexico, Guatemala, Honduras and I saw poverty. Believe me these people are not poor. Forty-five miles a day on flip-flops are you kidding me? Or even barefoot? Come on, where are the blisters and why aren't they carrying what is needed for a journey like that? Blankets, food, water...where are the spare diapers? Some people do have small backpacks, but they appear to be brand new. [Music] So what did happen?

First of all buses and vans were deployed to transport all of these people from Honduras to the U.S. border. [Music] Flip-flops, no problem. You only have to get out of the van occasionally for a group photo. Next, in order to get as many people as possible, you pay them. Thanks to some alert anons this was filmed on site. Then in order to be efficient for the media you give the main players a colored wristband. Brilliant! Different colors, different meanings, all known to the reporters and the cameraman. [Music] [Music] Some people overact. [Music] Others are really convincing and make it to the world news report. Meet Maria Meza and five children all the way from Honduras. She made it to every news item on TV telling about the terror, the fear for her children their eyes all wet and swollen due to the tear gas that the American Border Patrol so viciously threw at them. Well Maria there are a few flaws in your story. I've looked at every single picture of you and your beautiful girls. None of them show any signs of tear gas. This picture clearly shows that you are the only ones in action the cameraman shoots away completely uninjured by the gas. There is no panic let's have a closer look at this picture. Cameramen are standing in the line of smoke, yet have no problem with that. Oh, wait, look somebody is throwing a gas canister. Is that a fellow refugee? Maria told the press that a son went back the next day to get the canister and show it to the reporters. Shame on you America. I do hope Maria was paid handsomely, I really do, but his story sucks. The family was photographed on another day getting out of a van for yet another day's work in front of the camera and the tear gas canister. You can buy them at any theater property retailer or you can use the police training variety. They produce white smoke but no harm is done. I guess Trump's statement was correct. No tear gas was used on the children.

The entire mainstream media coverage of this event was biased and flawed. My advice for the producers, next time pay more attention to the details for the anons are on to you. Refugees who walk for thousands of miles do not walk like this or like this. They don't wear flip-flops. They don't have brand new ping buggies. They do not polish their nails. They don't wear ironed shirts neither do they have perfect haircuts and makeup when they say they flee the country, because they are so poor they can't even buy food. Don't show them with digital cameras and iPhones [Music] Refugees who walk thousands of miles are not clean and for God's sake pay attention to some of your supporting actors. [Music]

And when you Photoshop someone into a picture make sure you don't forget his leg. Oh and make up your mind will you. You want the shirt on or off and what's with the Disney obsession? When you really want to know what's going on in the world you have to do the research, just like Q keeps saying. And when you do you will see what's real and what's not. The migrant Caravan was a staged event with a political motive. Who was behind it? Who financed such a great event? George Soros, that's right our great benefactor. George Soros connected to the pedophile Club NAMBLA and the rioting and violent ANTIFA and Black Lives Matter. How do we know he's behind all of these so-called social movements. Well it's not really a secret according to an analysis of his tax filings. He invested 33 million dollars in the notorious Ferguson riots alone. Soros promised everyone who participated in the massive protests $15 an hour. In the case of the migrant caravan all they are to do was play the part of all refugees looking for safe haven. Money, new clothes, food, toys, and an extra bonus if you play a part well. Who'd refuse a job like that? Soros made a mistake by not fulfilling his financial promises, so then we have more riots, this time by angry actors who demanded payment. Videos of ANTIFA members shouting Soros, Soros where's our money went viral. Yet everything was hushed up by the mainstream media. So what's his motive? Why would anyone invest so much money in these massive and well-organized movements to destabilize a country, to create division, division by skin colour, by political wing, by religion, by gender? A divided people is easy to rule, a united people is not. Let's go back to the Q phenomenon.

As we've seen in part 2. Q-Anon strongly emphasizes the importance to unite. United we stand, divided we fall. Q portrays a better world without wars, treason and corruption and whether you like it or not the task to get there has been put in hands of Donald J. Trump. Now normally when I say this to people I get the most of vicious looks. Thanks to the mainstream media the majority of the Dutch people believe Trump to be a narcissistic dictator, but hey let's talk some facts here shall we. Trump went to North Korea. "He'll start a nuclear war!" the media shouted, but he came back with peace. Six million new jobs have been created under Trump, lowest unemployment rates in fifty years. More than four million people off of food stamps. Trump openly attacked Big Pharma. He created the biggest tax cuts ever for all social classes. He is the only American president ever to work for free. He signed an executive order to clean the oceans. Did you hear about that on the news? No, for some reason the mainstream media have a political agenda of their own, but more about that later. From my point of view one of the most important priorities of Trump is to protect the children. Right after his inauguration he stated that his administration would focus on ending the horrific practice of human trafficking, also referred to as modern slavery. On December 21 2017 he signed an executive order blocking the property of people involved in serious human rights abuse and corruption. More executive orders followed to protect the victims of human trafficking. A huge campaign was deployed to educate parents and children about the dangers of human trafficking. Throughout 2018 and 2019 many arrests took place. Thousands of child molesters were arrested. Thousands of victims were rescued. Trump keeps emphasizing that most victims are smuggled into the country through the southern border. He shows numbers, statistics. He made January Human Trafficking Awareness Month. He informed the people about MS-13 a criminal gang responsible for raping and killing many American citizens. He swore he would take them down to the last member. He keeps emphasizing the drugs problem and the billions of dollars plus the countless lives it costs each year. He keeps pleading for a wall, anything to reduce the drugs and human trafficking numbers as much as possible, but the mainstream media keep twisting his words making it sound like immigrants aren't welcome. I have watched these interviews time and again and I can assure you that according to President Trump immigrants are most welcome but they have to come in legally. The funny thing is Bill Clinton wanted a wall, Obama wanted a wall, Hilary wanted a wall, they all voted for a wall when there was a bill in the Senate, I'm talking about the 2006 secure Fence Act passed by a Republican Congress and signed by President George HW Bush. It wasn't a problem back then, but now all of a sudden Trump is an immigrant hater. The more I study the subject the more I understand why Trump is bashing fake news, but more about that soon. Back to Trump's war against human traffickers. For years whistleblowers at the highest levels have been stepping forward with testimonies about child trafficking for the elite. [Music]

This is nothing new. It was just never dealt with until now. The thing is when I talk about this in my presentations, people don't want to hear about it. They don't want to look at these pictures, which I understand. I would rather look away as well, but that reminds me of the famous one-liner of the Germans right after World War II after being confronted with a painful question how could you let the Nazi atrocities happen? Why didn't you do something? The answer was always wir wussten es nicht, "we didn't know", but, of course, they knew. It was just too painful and too dangerous to acknowledge it and to do something about it. Well, I will not look away any longer. These kids are not helped by our denial. They are helped by our action. So for God's sake keep watching. We are the only hope they have left. Child trafficking for the elite, that is bigger than pedophilia. We are talking about a huge criminal organization kidnapping children and selling them through high-ranking officials from mayor's, judges and senators to presidents and even royalty. Do you think this is far-fetched?

Appendix III – The Crime Families

The money, power, perversion trilogy continues with some recent U.S. office-holders like Bush, Clinton, and now Biden. All have been accused of serious criminal acts for decades, but there always seems to be a tiered system of “justice” where the top tier remains exempt from criminal prosecution.

In this transcript of an online segment of Rudy Giuliani’s Common Sense he discusses the revelations released following a forensic examination of the infamous Hunter Biden laptop, story swept under the MSM carpet.

“He excoriates the Biden Crime Family by detailing the essential facts surrounding their culpability. In his unique position on the Trump legal team he is privy to many internal documents that solidify his assertions that he can easily make without fear of lawsuits. He makes clear accusations that he feels are unassailable and essential knowledge for the public to understand the legal and moral character of the Bidens. Many public commentators beat around the bush to keep a safer distance from Biden repercussions, while Giuliani is simple, direct and fearless in his criticisms. More comprehensive addenda are provided from Senate investigative reports and other public sources for those with an appetite for references. As of this writing, the massive FBI files are still being withheld from the public pending legal proceedings. Until that day comes Joe Biden will remain the patron saint of the main stream media, about reproof, the prince of purity.”

Rudy Giuliani Episode 80 Oct 23, 2020

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=axVq7yWg6KA>

Hello, this is Rudy Giuliani and I’m here with Rudy’s Common Sense. This is possibly the most consequential and the most important one that we’ve ever done because in my simple opinion the future of America rides on the decision you’re going to make on November 3rd and if you choose Joe Biden we become a country that will be guided by socialism, authoritarianism and the kind of censorship you’re living through right now by big tech, big media and big businesses who are controlled or feel they’re controlled by the Chinese market. You’re experiencing it because you’re not hearing the facts I’m about to outline for you briefly and I hope this brief outline leads you to look into this in great detail both on our podcast and on many others where they're being reported as if we are in a dictatorship because I'm not allowed on main television to tell you these things even though they're 100% absolutely true, verifiable by witnesses, video recordings, tape recordings, hard drives. The reason they're doing it is because this is true and it's dangerous and it breaks up their control over you and it breaks up their ability to make billions of dollars and the only person standing in their way is Donald J Trump and that's why he must be elected, this time to save our country. So let me tell you about the Biden crime family. You know for some time, probably a year and a half or so, I have referred to the Biden crime family. For that I've been called a Russian agent, insane, an alcoholic. Oh those are the good things they call me. The reality is I'm the same Rudy Giuliani that put the mafia in jail, the Colombian drug dealers both of whom threatened to kill me a number of times, wall street, numerous, numerous corrupt politicians both on the federal estate and city level republican and democrat, many of them far smarter than the Bidens who do have an intellectual defect. But the worst defect they have is a moral defect and particularly the leader of the family, the big guy, he's an out and out stone cold criminal in the disguise of a presidential candidate of a party that at the very top has been corrupted, I think since the time bill Clinton took it over. Let me say to my friends, who are democrats, 99% of the democratic party is made up of good people. They're as good as republicans, sometimes better, but you are captured now you're conned and captured by a small group, but very influential group, of true absolute criminals who have sold out this country for money, for power, for greed, maybe even for other things. So let me get to it. I was the person who initiated the racketeering case, the use of it against the mob, against wall street, against corrupt politicians. The Biden family case is a quintessential racketeering case and if I were to do it, I'd go back 30 years and I'd show all of the corruption that was involved when Joe became a senator and his brother Jim became a crooked lobbyist and they were doing deals for a couple of thousand, ten thousand, fifty, and then his son got a job for the for a big bank in Delaware and Joe all the sudden became the biggest banking lobbyist and he lobbied against, he was the only democrat who lobbied against the bankruptcy bill because the bank had Hunter in a no-show job, very similar to Ukraine, but I'm going to confine this to the four, if not most recent, the four that are the easiest to cover and therefore, I think you'll get them pretty easily.

So Ukraine you know the most about. Let's simplify Ukraine. Hunter Biden fresh out of being tossed out of the Navy for drug addiction is hired by the crookedest man in Ukraine in order to get his father, then vice president Biden, and the point man for the Ukraine handing out all the money in the Ukraine, the point of that 8-14 million dollars is not to hire an unfortunate drug addict who never shows up in Ukraine in six years. It's to get joe's office and to use it for a specific purpose and the specific purpose is to get the case against Burisma, which is the crooked company that Hunter goes to work for, owned by Michola Zloszewski, to get that case dismissed. So my Michola Zloszewski can come back from exile and he can keep the 5.4 billion dollars that he stole from Ukraine. I know this is hard to believe, because we're good people we don't believe that crooked politicians do this, but the Bidens have been doing this all their lives and this was a big score for them. And that is why Joe Biden had the prosecutor fired and then it was said the prosecutor was corrupt and the prosecutor was this and the prosecutor was that. Believe me this prosecutor, on the level of corruption in Ukraine, was a little [sliver]. Joe was dealing with the big crooks in Ukraine. Mr. Poroshenko the president of the Ukraine alleged to have stolen seven to eight billion dollars, good friend of Joes, good friend of the ambassador and he made a big, big score on dismissing the Burisma case. The Bidens got the 9-14 million, the Ukrainians are now investigating their ex-president for taking a hundred million dollars to dismiss this case against one of the richest men in Ukraine who now has been allowed to come back from the Ukraine. He kept his 5.4 billion, keeps his crooked company and continues to go on to steal in the Ukraine thanks to our vice president Joseph Biden whose Biden crime family enriched themselves to the tune of 8 to 14 million.

Then we have Iraq. Joe was appointed to negotiate a status of forces agreement in Iraq. Joe does what he always does when he has to negotiate, he fails. I used to think it was out of stupidity. Well now I find that his brother James, a man who has no experience in housing, is just at the very same time cut into a 1.5 billion dollar housing contract in Iraq. James is cut in. Joe loses to Iraq. We've got the same pattern here, right? Joe loses in Ukraine family comes away with 14 million. Joe loses in Iraq. James comes away with one-third of a 1.5 billion dollar contract.

Now we switch over to Russia for a quick one, 3.5 million dollars from the widow of the mayor of Moscow, Elena Buturina, to Hunter Biden additional little payments amounting to about a total of four million dollars to Hunter Biden. No explanation. I do not think Elena Buturina is paying three and a half to four million dollars to Hunter Biden. What do you think? Well when you go through the documents and you go through the witnesses now available and you go through the hard drive, this was the beginnings of setting up a money laundering operation. Elena Buturina is the richest woman in Russia. She is a close ally of Vladimir Putin. She helped to depose her husband as mayor of Moscow and she, like the other two we're talking about, is a very dangerous woman. However, there's a flow of four million right into the Biden crime family and it's one of Joe's many lies. You might remember in the first debate Joe was confronted with a 3.5 million payment to his son from the mayor of Moscow's wife and he said categorically, "no", one of a thousand lies. I as a prosecutor call that a false exculpatory statement which can be used to prove evidence of guilt. It's done in trials all the time. It's a rule of evidence that about that's about 500 years old. Joe wouldn't know it because he cheated his way through law school.

[Commercial break]

Let's continue with the description of this racketeering case. Now we get to the main event, let's call it, at least so far, the main event, because the money I'm talking about here, the 14, the four, although the Russia one could have gone as high as 200, some people even say 800 but I cannot tell you that yet. Further investigation of this hard drive is necessary. So let's leave it at 4 million from Russia, kind of ironic because didn't they pursue Donald Trump for Russian collusion for four years based on a frame up from Hillary Clinton? That's in Brennan's handwriting which the FBI concealed for four years. Somebody's got to figure out why the FBI keeps concealing records that make it clear that Trump is innocent and Hillary and Biden are guilty. Something weird about that called corruption.

Well in any event we get to China. Let's separate these two deals because in the slight descriptions you've gotten that have leaked out beyond the iron curtain, they've been kind of confused. They're both equally incriminating. The first one happens when he's vice president. Joe takes Hunter with him on Air Force Two to China. Joe is going there as a point man which is when Joe always makes money, when he's a point man, as a point man for Barack Obama. And his job is to get China out of the islands they had recently militarized, that they dispute with Japan and secondly to get tariffs, oppressive tariffs, reduced. Remember high tariffs cost you your jobs, so this is no joking matter. So Joe negotiates for eight days. We don't know what Hunter does for eight days. We do know that when they get home Joe is a failure. The newspapers of the day say that Joe was unable to achieve either objective and then within a short period of time it gets even worse, because china increases the militarization of disputed islands and it raises the tariffs even further. So if you live, let me pick a few states, if you live in Pennsylvania, or if you live in Ohio, or if you live in Michigan, or if you live in, even Wisconsin, Iowa, you can thank Joe Biden for having lost your job and by the way here's what happens. He doesn't just lose you your job, he gets paid for it because eight days after they return from China a letter arrives and the letter is from the bank of China to Hunter Biden and Hunter Biden's corrupt, stupid, ridiculous, private equity fund for a one billion dollar commitment. Goldman Sachs doesn't get commitments like this without massive due diligence. Massive due diligence would reveal actually a little bit of due diligence would reveal that this stupid crooked private equity fund is made up of the following partners, Hunter Biden, son of the vice president, Chris Hines, stepson of the Secretary of State, James Bulger, the nephew of Whitey Bulger and head of the Thornhill Corporation. Whitey Bulger one of the most notorious organized criminals and murderers in the United States and fourth, the Bank of China so the vice president's son and the secretary of state steps up at a time of great sensitivity for the national interest of the United States with China is in a one billion dollar partnership with the government of China and you are not told about it. Does Barack Obama know about it? If he doesn't was he sleeping through that like he slept through Benghazi or is he responsible for enabling this corruption similar to the way he was in enabling the corruption of the crooked Clintons and the fix of the Clinton case. Big question necessary to answer and it's got to get beyond the iron curtain because they cover up, the iron curtain does, the massive corruption of the Obama administration and it goes way beyond Biden and that's why they're fighting so hard to cover this up. Well in any event it gets worse. China then sends another 500 million dollars to this completely corrupt totally stupid private equity fund run by a gangster's nephew and two children of crooked American politicians and I'll include John Kerry in that. So how does this not get disclosed? If it isn't hidden, how does our American intelligence services, how do they not know about it? How does John Kerry not know about it and report it. How? Because the Obama administration is thoroughly corrupt and the media that covers them is either so politically zealous and crazy and insane or corrupt. Remember some of the media is owned by the big tech that makes a fortune in China. Despite this we never find out about it until it's revealed by Peter Schweiker in his book Secret Empires and when it's revealed, the iron curtain make sure that you don't find out about it, given no publicity, no attention. This is a startling revelation and now we get to the most recent one, the one that is disclosed, well all of these, by the way, are completely corroborated by the hard drive, the 40-50,000 text messages and emails and photographs that were recovered from Hunter Biden's repairman. It is Hunter Biden's hard drive, no point am I spending any time on that. That is such a stupid allegation that it's Russian or... It's been corroborated now by independent witnesses, by technical experts, by the FBI, by other police organizations. It's corroborated by me, internally, with secret information that I have about Hunter Biden that could only be on here. You think I don't have other witnesses?

Now we get to maybe the most troubling of all. This is a deal made in anticipation of Joe Biden becoming president and it's a deal that's made with several high-level members of the communist party. So we have to understand who they are and the name of the corporation is CEFC. It's a Chinese company that engages in energy, but looks more like it's a front for intelligence activities. It's run by a man named Xi Jin Ming his American operative is Patrick Ho and his second American operative is Gon Wan Dung who referred to as Kevin Dung. They're on one side. They negotiate a deal and I have all the papers for the negotiation. They'll be on my website. You can examine them there's one very, very good one I'll explain it to you. So the Chinese communists are going to pay the Biden family and the people disclosed here of the Biden family are Hunter Biden, James Biden, and Sarah Biden that's a son, brother sister-in-law. Jin Wan Ming is going to put in 10 million dollars per year for a total of 30 million dollars and then everyone earns, including the Bidens 50 on the equity after that. So it's 10 million for sure for the crooked Bidens and then 50 more depending on success. What are the crooked Biden's supposed to do for this? They're supposed to make introductions, make introductions for 10 million a year and then you got all the back and forth. Actually Hunter is negotiating for more. It begins at 30 million a year. They add the 50 equity then he wants even more they turn that down and finally we get a contract, but we don't just get a contract, we get a contract and then if you search a little bit more in the hard drive you come up with a hidden term sheet. The hidden term sheet has all the equities laid out. They seem a little different and then when they get to the end, you see they left over 10% and it says 10% ... for the big guy. Now who's the big guy? I'll make it easy. If you look at another three or four texts, you see throughout Hunter Biden refers to his father as the big guy. In other words friends, one friend, saw his father at a political gathering at the Leipzig club and there is a text "I just saw the big guy at the Leipzig club" and then you see right below it vice president Biden addressed people at the Leipzig club. Then on another you see, "should we give this information to the big guy" and then another we have a memo that says to the participants in it who are not Bidens, "please make sure you do not use the name Joe Biden ever", in other words we're going to conceal the fact that Joe Biden is involved in it.

[Commercial break]

Let's continue with this description of the criminality of the Biden crime family. You put this all together and you put together, the testimony now under oath of Mr. Babilinski and what you have is Joe Biden is getting 10% of the money from communist china, 10%, and now if you want the overarching scheme that ties together all 30 years of this, let's call it the kill shot, the piece of evidence that every prosecutor dreams of. This is a text message from Hunter Biden to his daughter and she is taking on some of the responsibilities in the family and here's what the text message reads. "I love all of you but I don't receive any respect and that's fine, I guess, works for you apparently. I hope you all can do what I did and pay for everything for this entire family for 30 years. It's really hard, but don't worry, unlike pop, I won't make you give me half your salary." Key facts, pays for everything for 30 years, precisely the number I used a year and a half ago for the duration of the Biden crime family, and not only do they take care of expenses including, for example, his half-sister's tuition, forever, but he gives half the salary to pop. Pop is another name for Joe Biden aka big guy aka pop aka crook. You need more? Every single thing I gave to you is fact. There's much, much more. I don't have time to give you much, much more. I will in subsequent podcasts, but believe me after handling over 5,000 cases I've rarely seen one this strong and I've never seen such a crooked man in such a crooked family so close to running the greatest country on earth. This will be a disaster for us. This man is owned lock, stock and barrel by China. That's why they invested this money. He's been getting this money for years. That's why people have for years said "how can Joe Biden only make the salary of a senator with a wife who's a teacher and have five homes and live like a billionaire." This is why, because the money going on to Biden, goes to Joe Biden and now doesn't that make sense. Hunter Biden has been a drug addict for all of these 30 years. Nobody's paying him this money and everybody knows he's a drug addict and all the photographs that I have of him being a drug addict and all the inappropriate photographs I have of him that he describes as being very unsafe for children. He, Hunter, describes the photographs as being very unsafe for children, that's another email, right here. Just in case you think this is me, this is Hunter and this is very serious. He says, he's talking about his sister-in-law, who was his lover. She told my therapist that I was sexually inappropriate with 14 year old girl. When she says that I face time naked with her and the reason I can't have her out to see me is because I'll walk around naked smoking crack, talking to girls on facetime. When she was pressed, she said that "I never said anything like that, but the bottom line is that I create and created a very unsafe environment for the kids". There are numerous text messages, emails and photographs that support that. I brought this to the Delaware police within four days of seeing it. Joe Biden's been sitting on it for three years. So I conclude with the following observation. You may feel sorry for Hunter Biden. I do. I say, you know, 30-40 years ago if that were my son and he were a drug addict, I'd get him to treatment. I'd never put him in this kind of business, never, have him deal with my caller Zazewski, murderer organized criminal, Elena Buturina, member of Russian organized crime, close to Putin, never had him deal with Xi Yin Ming, intelligence operative, organized criminal, high member of the communist party and now executed, probably and sitting in the Yangtze river or Patrick Ho who gets arrested in the middle of this partnership, and the first person he asks for is James Biden and, of course, law enforcement does nothing with it but cover it up.

Law enforcement has covered all of this up. So here's what emerges in the end. You're the only ones who can save this country. I can't save this country. I've done everything I can. I've been called every name in the book and sued and threatened with you can't imagine what. Makes me proud of myself, that I'm able to do it anyway. So I'm a strange bird, all right, my father brought me up that way and the mafia didn't stop me and the FARC didn't stop me and Islamic terrorists didn't stop me and this low-level trash isn't going to stop me, because that's what they are, who somehow got near the White House, but don't let them get the White House. American people have common sense and decency you got to stop these people. You got to get out and vote. You vote. You vote them down. You get them out and I promise you that I will expend as much effort to clean this up so we no longer have censorship and so we get these crooked politicians out of Washington, Republican or Democrat. There's just a few of them. They go back to the Clinton era. It's not just Democrats, it's mostly Democrats, but it's not just Democrats. Let's get rid of them all. Let's really drain the swamp this time, really drain it now that we know what it really is. I never thought it was this bad. I thank you very, very much for your attention. I ask you to keep tuning in because there's much more of this. I try to keep it to the most relevant. Thank you and let's end by just quietly tuning out and saying a prayer to God that he'll save our republic from this kind of corruption, depravity and disaster.

Appendix IV – Perverse Satanists

Thoroughly established, irrefutable evidence confirms that this private pedo club of adrenochrome addicted planetary controllers is comprised of major top players from aristocratic and royalty bloodlines, secret societies, central banking, religion, government, the military, intelligence community, organized crime, high courts, law enforcement, child welfare and global charity organizations, media, entertainment and Fortune 500 corporations. All secretly working in synch together as foxes guarding their global pedo-henhouse, they are the globalized pedophilia cabal.

Pedophilia Empire; Satan, Sodomy, the Deep State—Joachim Hagopian

Functionally adrenochrome is a link in a control chain, but it is much more, the new heroin, a fountain of youth, a ceremonial offering, and a clearance ticket into an exclusive club of ruthless psychopaths, henchmen bent on vast wealth, self-aggrandizement and global control.

Its production represents a brutalization of the youngest and purest members of society by industrially farming them in tunnel networks worldwide. It presumes the existence of moral degenerates dedicated to the surreptitious acts of evil so vile that they would sicken the mind and stomach of the unsuspecting public. "These people are sick." Under elitist control this scum rises to the top with false pretensions of glamour, grace, moral purity, in short, heroic role models of undeserved virtue. Financial success and notoriety are the rewards of puppethood. Membership in this club is contingent on compromise that invites a day of reckoning. Gitmo beckons.

The threat of public exposure requires some kind of insurance and the higher the stakes, the bigger the need. Common forms of insurance are sexual blackmail, bribes, threats, assaults, and death. Witnessing/filming a satanic "skinning" death or a participating in an adrenochrome harvest/drinking ceremony may be called for at the top of the chain of command. Exposing pedophilia of mid-level minions is the preferred form of sex crime since it is so repulsive that it can bring an early end to a career of an off-message wannabe.

Politely billed as human trafficking, serious efforts to reverse this epidemic requires gradual re-education of the public to the reality that their long-term heroes are not what they seem. One by one the chains will unravel and shocking exposures will become commonplace. The Epstein lists are a good starting point and unredacted versions have been published, but media involvement has been sparse. This will change.

It is essential that the global tunnel system production facilities be dismantled and that the highly organized MS-13 kidnapping activities come to a halt. The current potus is committed to both objectives. He has been tireless in visiting other nations to subscribe to ending human trafficking and child farming activities. Bringing practitioners into the naked light of day is essential to change.

This gruesome topic is not for the faint-hearted or younger mindset. Use your own discretion before you delve into it. It is ignored by the MSM or labelled a “conspiracy theory,” a term invented by CIA propagandists as a dismissive slur. The commentary collection from outspoken critics cited speaks to the abusive society we have become. Because so much of what prevails is done in secret we seldom see what is really there until a consciousness shift brings it into view.
